

CONTENTS

Foreword	5
Lucia Abbamonte Latinas' bilingual cultural identities and the reporting of abuse in US institutional settings	9
Mahmood Reza Atai and Farhad Tabandeh Lexical bundles in Applied Linguistics articles: exploring writer, sub-discipline and subgenre variations	33
Flavia Cavaliere The British Code and the Italian Code of Ethics for Social Work: a lingua-cultural comparative analysis	57
Michela Giordano Crystal Mark, Clear Mark and Write Mark: assessing websites' clarity and usability across three English-speaking cultures	75
Claudia Ortu Managing labour conflict through language in the neo-liberal era: public sector strikes in the UK and South Africa	95
Francesco Pierini Definition and main features of business English with a special regard to differences with the language of economics	109
Margaret Rasulo Popularizing the CLIL classroom	121
Notes on contributors	137
Instructions for contributors	141